Our Nation Calls And We MUST NOT FAIL

Confidentially —

Come over here, BUD. Let's sit down on "this log". Let's have a quiet, simple talk... Unfortunately, under the circumstances, WE must do all the talking, on this spot, so BUD, or Jake, Frank, Tom, Dick or Harry, whatever you may be called; listen; think over the situation. In fact, FELLOWS pray over what YOU should do when your Nation asks you to bear YOUR part in the great struggle our people are in.

You know, BUD, this is our own government, this free form we now have and we want to keep it so. You see this nation did not "just happen." It was born of struggle, of blood, of sacrifice, and believe you me, to keep it that way the same kind of stuff must be used, and that pretty quickly.... Fellows, you know we are a peace-loving people; never have tried to rob any other people of their rights or property. We never have deliberately murdered or meted out cruel treatment to any other people, but by heck, we do not propose to sit down and let some big bully kill our folks, mistreat our women, destroy our property and take from us our free way of living.

You know, BUD, or do you, that we are in the second greatest war the world has ever seen? You surely know that. Bud, you are not to blame for this war and neither am I. Our government did not ask for it, but the bloated, boastful, bragging, greedy egotistic peoples of Germany, of Italy and Japan, thought the time was ripe to come over here and "take a little", maybe all, and prove to the world how silly and soft Americans are. Yes, history has been making that record for more than 25 years.

BUD, did you see that "Day of War" on the screen this week? Did you see, maybe your own son going into the very jaws of hell to whip the wham out of the enemy on a foreign battlefield, did you? Maybe it was NOT your son, but surely it was one of your neighbor's boys. Old fellow, how would you feel if you knew your small sum of money had lain down there in the bank, not yielding a penny, not doing any body any good, and there, over there in Africa, or maybe down there in New Guinea or perhaps up there in the Aleutians' cold, those boys were wishing for more tanks, more planes and more of this and that of what it takes to hold back the enemy? Did it mean anything to YOU to see the dive bombers whisk down and blast the machines out from under your boy, and there from roll the black smoke and the scorching red flames? The fight this boy is in requires millions of tons of iron shaped into a machine to match the enemy. Who builds the machine? Who pays for the material? who is responsible for giving that boy what he must have to win and live? Bud, it is you and I, every man and woman back home who has a few dollars that can be loaned to our Uncle Sam. You see it takes so much money to do anything with, these days, and NOW Uncle Sam is asking for enough money to be loaned to foot the bill.

Now, confidentially, Fellow, what you have got, was made possible by the kind of government we live under, and I, for one have utmost confidence in it. Instead of trying to invest, trying to make a few more dollars, trying to fool your neighbors, and weaken your government, don't you see it is good common sense to tell Uncle Sam, "Here it is, My Country, I am a part of you, and if you can't stand up with all of us pushing, then what's left will be worth nothing, anyway. Why, My Native Land, I know you will return my money to me, after victory, and what care I even if I should not get any interest on my dollars?"

My friend, you know your government can take all your money, but under our way of life, nobody is going to have to get out and work without pay, like they are doing in Germany, Italy and Japan. Our Government wants to pay cash to the owner of muscles, of lumber, iron, and food, and to get that cash, those who have the credits must permit part of it to be used as cash on the barrel head. Don't you think

Red Cross Call Is $5,000 Above Top In Jones County

Jones County Red Cross Chapter has exceeded its March War Fund quota by nearly $5,000. Robert Cross, Anson, war fund chairman, announced at an executive board meeting in Stamford Monday night.

Nearly $12,900 have been received and donations will continue to be received through the month until final report will be made April 30. Stamford and Stamford Flying School have contributed $4,673.85; Anson $2,274.46; Hamlin, $1,836.76; Lueders, $380.40; Hawley, $331.85 and smaller towns and communities have given remainder. The quota set was $7,950.

Mr. Cross was commended by the executive board for his chairmanship in the war fund drive, and Harold Bonner, Hamlin, chapter chairman, gave especial thanks to newspaper editors and theatres of the county for their parts in the drive.

Mrs. George Gray, Stamford, is new chapter treasurer, succeeding Mrs. Steve Bennett, treasurer for five years, whose work with Jones County Ration Board prevents continuance of her Red Cross office.

Increasing calls for Red Cross services were reflected in departmental reports. With 2,000 Jones county men now in armed services, Miss Hybernia Grace, Anson, home service chairman and her helpers last month handled an average of three cases daily in questions pertaining to service man and his family back home.

FLAT TOP BAPTIST CHURCH CALLED PASTOR SUNDAY

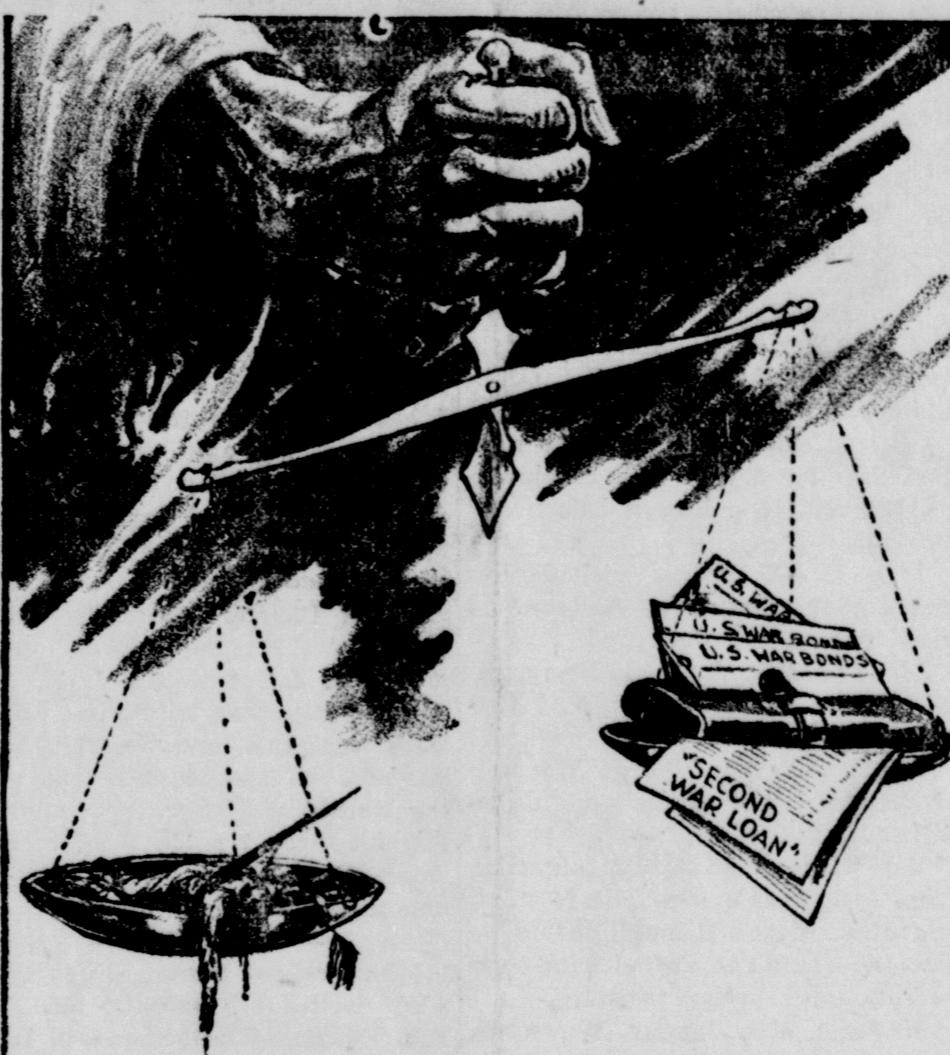

In a regular meeting of the Flat Top Baptist church Sunday, Rev. Holt, a student in Hardin-Simmons University, was called as pastor for this associational year. Rev. Holt will be in the pulpit Sunday and all members, and every one of the community is invited to hear him.

that good sense? You see, in some countries, they do not even ask you what a thing is worth, how much a man wants for so many hours, they just tell what is needed and the job is done without cash or loss of time. That could happen here, in case of folks falling down in helping maintain freedom of action, by lending their cash. And say, old boy, did you know back in '17, public sentiment got hot after all the guys who could buy a bond, and did not. Finally, all persons who were that short-sighted, were only too glad to get in line and help out. No, no, you don't "have to", but your ears will burn because somebody knows all about what you have got and how much you can do, and you DON'T, while their boy, and your neighbor's boy is not only fighting your battles, but buying bonds out of his meager salary while the old guy back home is clinging on to his cash, to make a few more dollars, while the nation bleeds.

Now Bud, this is all plain talk, just plain horse sense, right while our nation needs your help so badly. It is as simple as a case of where your loved one needs fresh blood, and you will NOT permit it to be loaned. Go on, keep your filthy cash, don't buy a single bond, & let the "other fellow" bear the burden, let somebody else furnish the "blood" while you roll in fat and freedom made possible by the sacrifices of the youth of our land.

No sir, you don't have to do but one thing in this world, and that is to die, and then what? At least your chance to do something when it is needed will be gone. But remember sir, nobody wants you to give anything, but your nation, and we mean the government, which is the people, does expect you to have enough confidence in the system that has enabled you to accumulate what you have, to lend it a little or considerable of your money.

Yes Sir, Bud, think about this and go down and ask for all the bonds you account can carry. Then you'll feel so much better. Get it into your skin that we ARE AT WAR.

Will Americans Be More Tender With Their Money Than Lives of Their Sons

Washington, D. C. — A blunt challenge—whether Americans will be more tender with their money than with the lives of their sons—confronts U. S. citizens as they prepare to meet the appeal of the government to put an additional 13 billion dollars into the fight in the next three weeks.

American dollars which run off to some cozy shelter to hide while American boys are dying to defend our cities and towns from destruction and invasion will face a rising demand from all classes of patriotic citizens to come out and fight.

Millions of workers who now are buying War Bonds regularly out of current income must lend extra money to their government during the Second War Loan campaign (which started April 12).

In recognition of the spirit of sacrifice which is sweeping over the land as our troops swing into offensive action in Africa and await the signal for a landing in Europe, the Treasury Department is offering a series of government bonds to fit every pocketbook.

No matter whether Americans buy the familiar Series E Bonds or 2½ per cent bonds or 2 per cent bonds or tax certificates, they will be doing their part to make the Second War Loan drive a success.

First Baptist Revival Is Now In Progress

Rev. H. R. Whatley, pastor of the First Baptist church of Haskell, is the preacher. Rev. Bill Bell of Abilene is the singer. The revival will continue through Easter Sunday with two services daily: 10:00 A. M. and 8:30 P. M.

We really believe that those who attend these services will be blessed. A revival sent from above is one great need; therefore, we feel impelled to urge everyone interested in spiritual things to attend and pray for these services.

Hamlin Boy To Be A Submarine Chaser

Miami, Fla.—William R. Dillard, 19 year old Hamlin boy who enlisted in the Navy in Abilene last September, is now in the honor section of his class at the Sub Chaser Training Center here, the only service activity of its kind in the United States.

The thousands of young men selected for this school from other training centers and from the fleet are put through an intensive, seven-day-a-week course here to make them specialists in the all vital business of anti-submarine warfare. The school has but one motto, "Sink That Sub".

Young Dillard, now a seaman, first class, is the son of Mr. Ross Dillard, Hamlin, and graduated from the Hamlin High school.

Listing in the honor section means that he is in the upper 10 per cent of his class. Upon completion of his training he will be qualified for specialized service aboard one or more types of the anti-submarine craft now combatting the U-boat menace along vital supply routes.

School Victory Corps To Meet In Anson Thursday, April 22nd

On Thursday, April 22, at 8:30 P. M. in the High school auditorium, Anson, Texas, T. M. Trimble, first assistant to the state superintendent, and his staff, will give a School Victory Program. This is a sub-district meeting, consisting of the following counties: Jones, Fisher, Stonewall, Haskell and Shackelford. Mr. Trimble has a very excellent program arranged.

Mr. Trimble urges all teachers and superintendents of all schools, all vocational teachers, all county superintendents, all county agents, all home demonstration agents, and all trustees and all parents to attend this meeting.

This small district is very fortunate in securing this meeting as our state is so big there are comparatively few small districts, which will have the privilege of a program of this nature. Every one interested in our schools and in winning the war, in a hurry, should attend this meeting if possible.

Dr. Harold G. Cooke, the new president of McMurry College, will speak at the morning service at the Methodist Church on Easter Sunday. Dr. Cooke, who assumes his duties as president of McMurry, comes to the college at a critical time, but he is making a great beginning and is being enthusiastically received throughout this great section of Northwest Texas that McMurry College serves.

Dr. Cooke is a preacher of unusual ability and his great messages have been heartily received every place he has been. It is a rare privilege to have him speak in Hamlin and everyone will be anxious to hear his message Easter Sunday morning.

Horsemen Wanted For Coast Guard Service

Acceptance of a limited number of volunteers for induction into the U. S. Coast Guard Reserve for service with the Mounted Beach Patrol has been authorized by the Coast Guard Headquarters, according to the local recruiting station in Abilene, Texas.

Men within the draft age who are thoroughly familiar with the care and management of horses will be eligible for this service, relates Lt. F. Herman Ahrens, Enlisted Personnel Procurement Officer for the Eighth Naval District.

Men meeting these qualifications should apply to the Coast Guard Representative at Room 203 in the Federal Building, Abilene, Texas, furnishing a statement containing full details as to his qualifications, together with three occupational references. No waivers for physical defects will be made, Lieutenant Ahrens said.

In the event the applicant is accepted, he will be given a letter from the District Coast Guard Officer, for presentation to his local selective board and will volunteer for induction. He will then be sent to the Armed Forces Induction Station.

In addition to experienced horsemen, the Coast Guard will similarly accept a small number of men for induction as Radio Technicians, Lt. Ahrens said.

Mrs. W. T. Henderson, who was taken to the Stamford Sanitarium Sunday for perhaps an operation, improved so well that she was able to be returned home Wednesday in a Kinney Ambulance.

A LITTLE BIT ABOUT

This

THAT

—The biggest "scrap pile" in the world, now is in Tunisia..... all kinds of scrap..... from Italian wops, to great tanks and millions of pounds of other kinds of materials also plenty of scrap towns, and as a result of the most famous chase in history.

—See a date line, Washington, April 10, saying that the USCC is being organized to help meet the labor shortage on farms. Mr. Farmer, here's your chance (provided your wife will consent). 60,000 of the number will be city women. Yes sir, there's your chance. Get one or two of those City women to come out and help you with your farm jobs. They are going to "educate" the women before sending them out to your farm and when they arrive they will have on a uniform.... no joking. This step might bring out a few lazy city dudes to help the women help the farmer. Wonder who will cook for the laborers? County Agent, Binion, will you please let the Herald know who is the first applicant for extra help?

—On a far different subject... when you see a paper forever printing most of its pages full of sour grapes, everything wrong, nothing right, you can bet your bottom dollar that there's something brewing that spells nothing good for anybody.... sometimes one may hear an individual talking the same, everything wrong, everybody's wrong, nothing right, everything going to the dogs, no use any more, we're "blowed up". Well! Now what?

—Just been looking over the files of the Hamlin Herald for the years 1916-17-18, years of WAR, our first great war, and it is clear that the interest and spirit of patriotism ran high. Things were done differently to what we are doing these days. The Herald shows how the Red Cross, the draft and enlistments, and the Liberty Loans were met; how public opinion bore down on those who slacked, those who shirked, or knocked. It had letters from the boys, great lists of men, who now are granddads but were in there fighting.... the greatest pride Hamlin had in those days was "going over the quotas". Bonds sold in those days were made public and the fellow who did not let his Uncle Sam use his spare money was called yellow.... yes sir-e-e things popped in those days.... much was said about scarcity of foods, and remember there was the most severe drought on, that this state ever felt.... but folks bought bonds, supported the Red Cross, sent their sons to war, and won a victory.

Mrs. W. B. Teague has received letters from her son, Flight Officer Wm. B. Teague, who has seen fighter service down in the Southwest Pacific, and was wounded. Officer Teague has landed in New York and writes from the hospital there, a part of which is as follows: "Surprise! Well, here I am in New York again. Darn it, I never did like this place, but it seems just like 'Home Sweet Home,' to me now, almost. They took the cast off my leg today, and gee, was I glad!.... My leg has healed a lot more than I had suspected, and it doesn't hurt hardly any at all now." Teague says he will soon be able to sit in a wheelchair and soon on crutches. W. B. says, "I only got one letter from home while I was away, but the mail will catch up with me before long. I had a 30 days trip on the boat without seeing outside of my room, which had no windows, so for 30 days I did not see daylight. I am now in a brand new hospital, very large, modern and pretty." Teague reported Charles Prater as visiting his hospital in the "down under" area, but failed to see J. R. Reynolds, but talked with his officer. Both were fine, and the only Hamlin boys he saw. Here is one man the Herald will give his address: Flight Officer Wm. B. Teague, Halloran Gen. Hosp., Ward 20-A-1, Staten Island, New York.

The bride wore a dress of iris blue with white accessories and a corsage of white carnations. Her only attendant, Miss Kathryn Boulware, of Middletown, Penn., wore a dress of orchid with British tan accessories and a corsage of pink carnations.

Lieutenant Paul Hudson, brother of the bride, was best man.

The couple met in San Antonio, where the bride is employed as typist in the offices of the Cadet Center. She is a graduate of the class of 1939 of Hamlin High school, and before going to San Antonio, was employed here with Western Union.

The groom had only a week end pass and returned to the Officers School in Camp Barkeley Monday. The bride visited with her parents till Tuesday and returned to her position in San Antonio. Their future will depend on the officer assignment.

Pvt. Alvin Hudson, of Garden City, Kansas, and wife attended the wedding.

Hamlin Girl Married In Stinnett, Texas

Below is a clipping from a Borger paper recounting the marriage of Irene Harris, formerly Miss McWright of Hamlin, a daughter of H. A. McWright.

Quiet, but beautiful in its simplicity was the wedding which united Irene Harris and Gilbert C. Steinkeuhler Sunday in the home of the Rev. and Mrs. Hal Upchurch, Baptist pastor at Stinnett.

For the occasion the bride wore a navy blue traveling suit, with contrasting accessories.

Only attendants were Mr. and Mrs. Tom Parks, Sr.

The son of C. Steinkeuhler, the bridegroom is a farmer and stockman.

After a short wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Steinkeuhler will be at home on their farm, near Guymon, Okla.

Guarding Fertility Farms' Best Resource

Replacement of Mineral Food Very Important

Regardless of how good a cropping system may be, it cannot of itself completely maintain the fertility of the soil. Moreover, the more efficient a farmer is in maintaining high production, the more rapidly will fertility leave his land, according to Dr. C. O. Rost of the Minnesota agricultural experiment station.

Most good farmers are like a merchant who opens a store with well-filled shelves and by vigorous selling methods rapidly disposes of his goods, but neglects to order new stock. His stock of staple goods is soon depleted.

The staple goods first drained from the farmer's store in the soil will be nitrogen, phosphorus, potash, lime and organic matter. All crops, livestock and livestock products remove fertility from the farm. In Minnesota alone, it would be no exaggeration to say that the equivalent of at least 500,000 tons of commercial fertilizer is removed each year from the soil in the form of cash crops and livestock products. The situation in Minnesota is typical of what occurs every crop season throughout the United States.

But this is not the entire story. Scientists of the department of agriculture have estimated that 63 million tons of plant food materials are removed each year by erosion from the fields of the United States. Much of this loss is directly traceable to wasteful cropping methods, to failure to replace fertilizer elements or to grow cover crops and follow rotation systems.

In the majority of cases, losses from erosion can be largely eliminated by the use of proper crop rotations, special cropping systems and good soil management practices which include the use of fertilizer. These, when combined with other supplementary practices such as contour plowing and strip cropping, can help eliminate erosion.

The problem of replacing mineral plant foods drained away by crop production is serious and should receive serious attention. A part of the nitrogen removed may be replaced by growing inoculated legumes, but minerals cannot be replenished unless they are supplied in the form of commercial fertilizers. Surface soil contains the major part of the organic matter and a large part of the readily available nutrients.

He thinks our increased food production is a military secret.

HOGS

So valuable are all the hog fats that even the water used in the packing house is strained to retrieve floating greases. From these come liquid oils, pasty grease and hard tallow which is sold as lard, manufactured into salves, cosmetics, candle stock, metal polish, soap, lubricating oils for engines, explosives, burning oils and animal feeds.

Pepsin is produced from the linings of the stomach of hogs. Glands produce the drug insulin, and liver extract comes from hog liver. Only the large packers can market glands for pharmaceutical uses since they must be marketed quickly in large quantities before deterioration begins.

Blood of slaughtered hogs is used in refining sugar, printing calico, in making buttons, shoe polish, fertilizer and animal feed. Bones are cut into ornaments, buttons and combs and ground into bone meal and oil, animal feeds and glue.

Bristles from the hog are used as brushes. Hair from the body goes into felting, mattresses, upholstery, air filters and insulation for refrigerators. The skin is marketed for leather goods, razor straps, belts and gloves.

Rural Briefs

Large cows of any breed, when given an equal opportunity, average out better in milk production than small ones.

Nowadays stress is placed on growing green and yellow vegetables and tomatoes, high in Vitamins A and C, and on doing more canning, drying, freezing and storing of home-grown fruits and vegetables.

This Dinner-Table War

Is Your Family in Fighting Trim?

OF COURSE it's more trouble to feed a family in wartime! ... That's what war is: trouble. But even so, aren't America's dinner tables banquets, compared with those in the other nations that are fighting to save mankind's freedom? That's why American women can swing market baskets and count ration points, and think nothing of it. They are helping to win. And in this war, we win or we die.

the President physically fit, then we see no good reason why Mr. Roosevelt should not continue as Commander-in-Chief. Beyond a doubt, Mr. Roosevelt knows more about every angle of this war, more about politics at home and abroad than any other American and it's not a question of two terms or ten terms, but if ever we did need F. D. R. it is now, and until victory and peace again prevails the masses will look to Mr. Roosevelt as the No. 1 world leader.

COMMENT No. 2. It seems that only about ninety persons turned out to hear John Lee Smith in Abilene the other day where he was guest speaker in the million dollar war bond drive for Taylor County. Well, when a city as large as Abilene is no more interested than shown at the First Baptist church in Abilene on last Sunday, then we say to the Lt. Governor to come on over to McCaulley and we guarantee him a better reception than was shown in Abilene, and though a one-horse town with a little over two hundred souls, McCaulley is tops when it comes to getting things done and if it takes the small rural towns to win this war, you can count on the old home town to do her part, and say Governor, when you are out in West Texas you may deal around Abilene by turning off at hill top on the Albany hill—and it's a Bee Line to McCaulley.

Mr. J. H. Milsap, who has been very ill in a Rotan hospital, is reported to be no better.

Our Nation Calls And We MUST NOT FAIL

Confidentially — —

Come over here, BUD. Let's sit down on "this log". Let's have a quiet, simple talk.... Unfortunately, under the circumstances, WE must do all the talking, on this spot, so BUD, or Jake, Frank, Tom, Dick or Harry, whatever you may be called; listen; think over the situation. In fact, FELLOWS pray over what YOU should do when your Nation asks you to bear YOUR part in the great struggle our people are in.

You know, BUD, this is our own government, this free form we now have and we want to keep it so. You see this nation did not "just happen." It was born of struggle, of blood, of sacrifice, and believe you me, to keep it that way the same kind of stuff must be used, and that pretty quickly.... Fellows, you know we are a peace-loving people; never have tried to rob any other people of their rights or property. We never have deliberately murdered or meted out cruel treatment to any other people, but by heck, we do not propose to sit down and let some big bully kill our folks, mistreat our women, destroy our property and take from us our free way of living.

You know, BUD, or do you, that we are in the second greatest war the world has ever seen? You surely know that. Bud, you are not to blame for this war and neither am I. Our government did not ask for it, but the bloated, boastful, bragging, greedy egotistic peoples of Germany, of Italy and Japan, thought the time was ripe to come over here and "take a little", maybe all, and prove to the world how silly and soft Americans are. Yes, history has been making that record for more than 25 years.

BUD, did you see that "Day of War" on the screen this week? Did you see, maybe your son going into the very jaws of hell to whip the wham out of the enemy on a foreign battlefield, did you? Maybe it was NOT your son, but surely it was one of your neighbor's boys. Old fellow, how would you feel if you knew your small sum of money had lain down there in the bank, not yielding a penny, not doing any body any good, and there, over there in Africa, or maybe down there in New Guinea or perhaps up there in the Aleutians' cold, those boys were wishing for more tanks, more planes and more of this and that of what it takes to hold back the enemy? Did it mean anything to YOU to see the dive bombers whisk down and blast the machines out from under your boy, and there from roll the black smoke and the scorching red flames? The fight this boy is in requires millions of tons of iron shaped into a machine to match the enemy. Who builds the machine? Who pays for the material? who is responsible for giving that boy what he must have to win and live? Bud, it is you and I, every man and woman back home who has a few dollars that can be loaned to our Uncle Sam. You see it takes so much money to do anything with, these days, and NOW Uncle Sam is asking for enough money to be loaned to foot the bill.

Now, confidentially, Fellow, what you have got, was made possible by the kind of government we live under, and I, for one have utmost confidence in it. Instead of trying to invest, trying to make a few more dollars, trying to fool your neighbors, and weaken your government, don't you see it is good common sense to tell Uncle Sam, "Here it is, My Country, I am a part of you, and if you can't stand up with all of us pushing, then what's left will be worth nothing, anyway. Why, My Native Land, I know you will return my money to me, after victory, and what care I even if I should not get any interest on my dollars?

My friend, you know your government can take all your money, but under our way of life, nobody is going to have to get out and work without pay, like they are doing in Germany, Italy and Japan. Our Government wants to pay cash to the owner of muscles, of lumber, iron, and food, and to get that cash, those who have the credits must permit part of it to be used as cash on the barrel head. Don't you think

Jones County Red Cross Chapter has exceeded its March War Fund quota by nearly $5,000. Robert Cross, Anson, war fund chairman, announced at an executive board meeting in Stamford Monday night.

Nearly $12,900 have been received and donations will continue to be received through the month until final report will be made April 20. Stamford and Stamford Flying School have contributed $4,673.85; Anson $2,274.46; Hamlin, $1,836.76; Lueders, $380.40; Hawley, $331.85 and smaller towns and communities have given remainder. The quota set was $7,950.

Mr. Cross was commended by the executive board for his chairmanship in the war fund drive, and Harold Bonner, Hamlin, chapter chairman, gave especial thanks to newspaper editors and theatres of the county for their parts in the drive.

Mrs. George Gray, Stamford, is new chapter treasurer, succeeding Mrs. Steve Bennett, treasurer for five years, whose work with Jones County Ration Board prevents continuance of her Red Cross office.

Increasing calls for Red Cross services were reflected in departmental reports. With 2,000 Jones county men now in armed services, Miss Hybernia Grace, Anson, home service chairman and her helpers last month handled an average of three cases daily in questions pertaining to service man and his family back home.

0-0-0 FLAT TOP BAPTIST CHURCH CALLED PASTOR SUNDAY

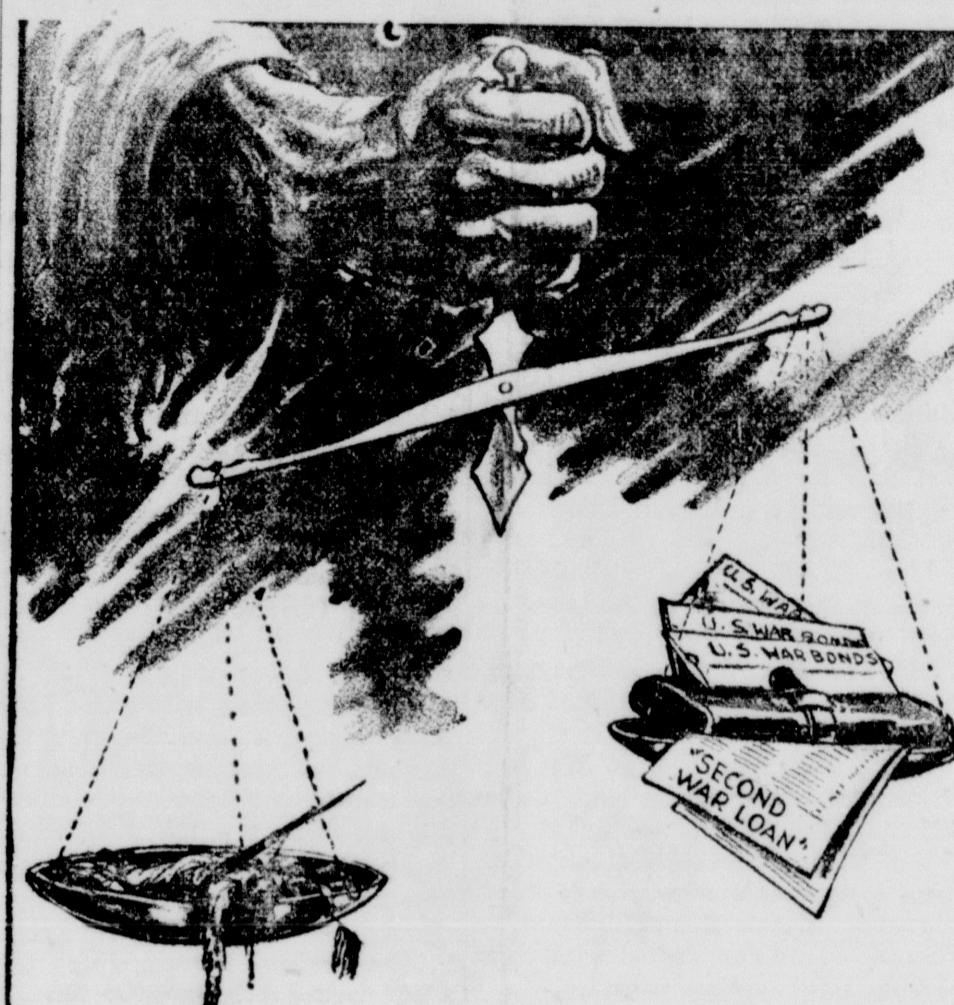

In a regular meeting of the Flat Top Baptist church Sunday, Rev. Holt, a student in Hardin-Simmons University, was called as pastor for this associational year. Rev. Holt will be in the pulpit Sunday and all members, and every one of the community is invited to hear him.

that good sense? You see, in some countries, they do not even ask you what a thing is worth, how much a man wants for so many hours, they just tell what is needed and the job is done without cash or loss of time. That could happen here, in case of folks falling down in helping maintain freedom of action, by lending their cash. And say, old boy, did you know back in '17, public sentiment got hot after all the guys who could buy a bond, and did not. Finally, all persons who were that short-sighted, were only too glad to get in line and help out. No, no, you don't "have to", but your ears will burn because somebody knows all about what you have got and how much you can do, and you DON'T, while their boy, and your neighbor's boy is not only fighting your battles, but buying bonds out of his meager salary while the old guy back home is clinging on to his cash, to make a few more dollars, while the nation bleeds.

Now Bud, this is all plain talk, just plain horse sense, right while our nation needs your help so badly. It is as simple as a case of where your loved one needs fresh blood, and you will NOT permit it to be loaned. Go on, keep your filthy cash, don't buy a single bond, let the "other fellow" bear the burden, let somebody else furnish the "blood" while you roll in fat and freedom made possible by the sacrifices of the youth of our land.

No sir, you don't have to do but one thing in this world, and that is to die, and then what? At least your chance to do something when it is needed will be gone. But remember sir, nobody wants you to give anything, but your nation, and we mean the government, which is the people, does expect you to have enough confidence in the system that has enabled you to accumulate what you have, to lend it a little or considerable of your money.

Yes Sir, Bud, think about this and go down and ask for all the bonds your account can carry. Then you'll feel so much better. Get it into your skin that we ARE AT WAR.

Will Americans Be More Tender With Their Money Than Lives of Their Sons

Washington, D. C. — A blunt challenge—whether Americans will be more tender with their money than with the lives of their sons — confronts U. S. citizens as they prepare to meet the appeal of the government to put an additional 13 billion dollars into the fight in the next three weeks.

American dollars which run off to some cozy shelter to hide while American boys are dying to defend our cities and towns from destruction and invasion will face a rising demand from all classes of patriotic citizens to come out and fight.

Millions of workers who now are buying War Bonds regularly out of current income must lend extra money to their government during the Second War Loan campaign (which started April 12).

In recognition of the spirit of sacrifice which is sweeping over the land as our troops swing into offensive action in Africa and await the signal for a landing in Europe, the Treasury Department is offering a series of government bonds to fit every pocketbook.

No matter whether Americans buy the familiar Series E Bonds or 2½ per cent bonds or 2 per cent bonds or tax certificates, they will be doing their part to make the Second War Loan a success.

Consumer Spending Too High. Consumer spending in 1942 was much too high to meet the war situation of 1943. Last year more than $2 billion dollars of our soaring national income went to feed the desires of Americans for clothes, recreation, foods and luxuries. As these items grow scarcer, more of our income must be diverted from such expenses into government bonds.

During 1942 millions of our fathers, sons, relatives and friends were in training here and abroad. Some were already in action. Casualties were beginning to bite into every community. War Bonds became a vital link between the home and fighting fronts.

Today sacrifice has become a way of life for America's fighting men. Civilian spending on the 1942 scale must go out the window if the some folks are to attempt to match the heroism of our boys at the front.

Not every American can take his place in a bomber or in a foxhole or on a fighting ship but he can fire away at the enemy by lending money to the government.

First Baptist Revival Is Now In Progress

Rev. H. R. Whatley, pastor of the First Baptist church of Haskell, is the preacher. Rev. Bill Bell of Abilene is the singer. The revival will continue through Easter Sunday with two services daily: 10:00 A. M. and 8:30 P. M.

We really believe that those who attend these services will be blessed. A revival sent from above is one great need; therefore, we feel impelled to urge everyone interested in spiritual things to attend and pray for these services.

Hamlin Boy To Be A Submarine Chaser

Miami, Fla.—William R. Dillard, 19 year old Hamlin boy who enlisted in the Navy in Abilene last September, is now in the honor section of his class at the Sub Chaser Training Center here, the only service activity of its kind in the United States.

The thousands of young men selected for this school from other training centers and from the fleet are put through an intensive, seven-day-a-week course here to make them specialists in the all vital business of anti-submarine warfare. The school has but one motto, "Sink That Sub".

Young Dillard, now a seaman, first class, is the son of Mr. Ross Dillard, Hamlin, and graduated from the Hamlin High school.

Listing in the honor section means that he is in the upper 10 per cent of his class. Upon completion of his training he will be qualified for specialized service aboard one or more types of the anti-submarine craft now combatting the U-boat menace along vital supply routes.

School Victory Corps To Meet In Anson Thursday, April 22nd

On Thursday, April 22, at 8:30 P. M. in the High school auditorium, Anson, Texas, T. M. Trimble, first assistant to the state superintendent, and his staff, will give a School Victory Program. This is a sub-district meeting, consisting of the following counties: Jones, Fisher, Stonewall, Haskell and Shackelford. Mr. Trimble has a very excellent program arranged.

Mr. Trimble urges all teachers and superintendents of all schools, all vocational teachers, all county superintendents, all county agents, all home demonstration agents, and all trustees and all parents to attend this meeting.

This small district is very fortunate in securing this meeting as our state is so big there are comparatively few small districts, which will have the privilege of a program of this nature. Every one interested in our schools and in winning the war, in a hurry, should attend this meeting if possible.

College President

Dr. Harold G. Cooke, the new president of McMurry College, will speak at the morning service at the Methodist Church on Easter Sunday. Dr. Cooke, who assumes his duties as president of McMurry, comes to the college at a critical time, but he is making a great beginning and is being enthusiastically received throughout this great section of Northwest Texas that McMurry College serves.

Dr. Cooke is a preacher of unusual ability and his great messages have been heartily received every place he has been. It is a rare privilege to have him speak in Hamlin and everyone will be anxious to hear his message Easter Sunday morning.

Horsemen Wanted For Coast Guard Service

Acceptance of a limited number of volunteers for induction into the U. S. Coast Guard Reserve for service with the Mounted Beach Patrol has been authorized by the Coast Guard Headquarters, according to the local recruiting station in Abilene, Texas.

Men within the draft age who are thoroughly familiar with the care and management of horses will be eligible for this service, relates Lt. F. Herman Ahrens, Enlisted Personnel Procurement Officer for the Eighth Naval District.

Men meeting these qualifications should apply to the Coast Guard Representative at Room 203 in the Federal Building, Abilene, Texas, furnishing a statement containing full details as to his qualifications, together with three occupational references. No waivers for physical defects will be made, Lieutenant Ahrens said.

In the event the applicant is accepted, he will be given a letter from the District Coast Guard Officer, for presentation to his local selective board and will volunteer for induction. He will then be sent to the Armed Forces Induction Station.

In addition to experienced horsemen, the Coast Guard will similarly accept a small number of men for induction as Radio Technicians, Lt. Ahrens said.

THIS WEEK

A LITTLE BIT ABOUT

This

—The biggest "scrap pile" in the world, now is in Tunisia..... all kinds of scrap..... from Italian wops, to great tanks and millions of pounds of other kinds of materialsalso plenty of scrap towns, and as a result of the most famous chase in history.

—See a date line, Washington, April 10, saying that the USCC is being organized to help meet the labor shortage on farms. Mr. Farmer, here's your chance (provided your wife will consent). 60,000 of the number will be city women. Yes sir, there's your chance. Get one or two of those City women to come out and help you with your farm jobs. They are going to "educate" the women before sending them out to your farm and when they arrive they will have on a uniform....no joking. This step might bring out a few lazy city dudes to help the women help the farmer. Wonder who will cook for the laborers? County Agent, Binion, will you please let the Herald know who is the first applicant for extra help?

—On a far different subject.... when you see a paper forever printing most of its pages full of sour grapes, everything wrong, nothing right, you can bet your bottom dollar that there's something brewing that spells nothing good for anybody.... sometimes one may hear an individual talking the same, everything wrong, everybody's wrong, nothing right, everything going to the dogs, no use any more, we're "blowed up". Well! Now what?

—Just been looking over the files of the Hamlin Herald for the years 1916-17-18, years of WAR, our first great war, and it is clear that the interest and spirit of patriotism ran high. Things were done differently to what we are doing these days. The Herald shows how the Red Cross, the draft and enlistments, and the Liberty Loans were met; how public opinion bore down on those who slacked, those who shirked, or knocked. It had letters from the boys, great lists of men, who now are grandfathers but were in there fighting....the greatest pride Hamlin had in those days was "going over the quotas". Bonds sold in those days were made public and the fellow who did not let his Uncle Sam use his spare money was called yellow....yes sir-e-e-e things popped in those days....much was said about scarcity of foods, and remember there was the most severe drought on, that this state ever felt....but folks bought bonds, supported the Red Cross, sent their sons to war, and won a victory.

Farm Topics

Guarding Fertility Farms' Best Resource

Replacement of Mineral Food Very Important

Regardless of how good a cropping system may be, it cannot of itself completely maintain the fertility of the soil. Moreover, the more efficient a farmer is in maintaining high production, the more rapidly will fertility leave his land, according to Dr. C. O. Rost of the Minnesota agricultural experiment station.

Most good farmers are like a merchant who opens a store with well-filled shelves and by vigorous selling methods rapidly disposes of his goods, but neglects to order new stock. His stock of staple goods is soon depleted.

The staple goods first drained from the farmer's store in the soil will be nitrogen, phosphorus, potash, lime and organic matter. All crops, livestock and livestock products remove fertility from the farm. In Minnesota alone, it would be no exaggeration to say that the equivalent of at least 500,000 tons of commercial fertilizer is removed each year from the soil in the form of cash crops and livestock products. The situation in Minnesota is typical of what occurs every crop season throughout the United States.

But this is not the entire story. Scientists of the department of agriculture have estimated that 63 million tons of plant food materials are removed each year by erosion from the fields of the United States. Much of this loss is directly traceable to wasteful cropping methods, to failure to replace fertilizer elements or to grow cover crops and follow rotation systems.

In the majority of cases, losses from erosion can be largely eliminated by the use of proper crop rotations, special cropping systems and good soil management practices which include the use of fertilizer. These, when combined with other supplementary practices such as contour plowing and strip cropping, can help eliminate erosion.

The problem of replacing mineral plant foods drained away by crop production is serious and should receive serious attention. A part of the nitrogen removed may be replaced by growing inoculated legumes, but minerals cannot be replenished unless they are supplied in the form of commercial fertilizers. Surface soil contains the major part of the organic matter and a large part of the readily available nutrients.

He thinks our increased food production is a military secret.

HOGS

So valuable are all the hog fats that even the water used in the packing house is strained to retrieve floating greases. From these come liquid oils, pasty grease and hard tallow which is sold as lard, manufactured into salves, cosmetics, candle stock, metal polish, soap, lubricating oils for engines, explosives, burning oils and animal feeds.

Pepsin is produced from the linings of the stomach of hogs. Glands produce the drug insulin, and liver extract comes from hog liver. Only the large packers can market glands for pharmaceutical uses since they must be marketed quickly in large quantities before deterioration begins.

Blood of slaughtered hogs is used in refining sugar, printing calico, in making buttons, shoe polish, fertilizer and animal feed. Bones are cut into ornaments, buttons and combs and ground into bone meal and oil, animal feeds and glue.

Bristles from the hog are used as brushes. Hair from the body goes into felting, mattresses, upholstery, air filters and insulation for refrigerators. The skin is marketed for leather goods, razor straps, belts and gloves.

Rural Briefs

Large cows of any breed, when given an equal opportunity, average out better in milk production than small ones.

Nowadays stress is placed on growing green and yellow vegetables and tomatoes, high in Vitamins A and C, and on doing more canning, drying, freezing and storing of home-grown fruits and vegetables.

This Dinner-Table War

Is Your Family in Fighting Trim?

OF COURSE it's more trouble to feed a family in wartime! . . . That's what war is: trouble. But even so, aren't America's dinner tables banquets, compared with those in the other nations that are fighting to save mankind's freedom? That's why American women can swing market baskets and count ration points, and think nothing of it. They are helping to win. And in this war, we win or we die.

The President physically fit, then we see no good reason why Mr. Roosevelt should not continue as Commander-in-Chief. Beyond a doubt, Mr. Roosevelt knows more about every angle of this war, more about politics at home and abroad than any other American and it's not a question of two terms or ten terms, but if ever we did need F. D. R. it is now, and until victory and peace again prevails the masses will look to Mr. Roosevelt as the No. 1 world leader.

COMMENT No. 2. It seems that only about ninety persons turned out to hear John Lee Smith in Abilene the other day where he was guest speaker in the million dollar war bond drive for Taylor County. Well, when a city as large as Abilene is no more interested than shown at the First Baptist church in Abilene on last Sunday, then we say to the Lt.-Governor to come on over to McCaulley and we guarantee him a better reception than was shown in Abilene, and though a one-horse town with a little over two hundred souls, McCaulley is tops when it comes to getting things done and if it takes the small rural towns to win this war, you can count on the old home town to do her part, and say Governor, when you are out in West Texas you may deal around Abilene by turning off at hill top on the Albany hill—and it's a Bee Line to McCaulley.

(Geo. did you read the Abilene Reporter-News, Tuesday evening paper about Mr. Smith in Abilene?)

Mrs. S. E. Miers who has been ill for ten days is now in a Stamford hospital undergoing treatment.

Mr. J. P. Humphries has been quite ill for several days and confined to his bed at his home south of town.

On the return trip from Fort Worth one of the Eivens twins, Nancy Sue, became ill and was rushed to the Stamford hospital where she underwent surgery. At this writing Nancy Sue is doing fine.

BOYD CHAPEL CHIRPS By Mrs. James Ferguson

Olen Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Young, who has been stationed as pharmacist in a hospital in Pearl Harbor for some time, and who will be Pharmacist Mate out somewhere in the Pacific, is now visiting his parents.

J. P. Bingham Jr. of Honolulu, Hawaii is spending a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Bingham.

Those visiting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Bingham Sunday were J. P. Bingham Jr. of Honolulu, Pvt. and Mrs. J. D. Bingham of Lubbock, Mr. and Mrs. Hardy Bingham and children of Corpus Christi, Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Bingham, Wanda Faye and Jerry and Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Bingham and Bobbie.

The fine rain which fell in our community last week was accompanied by hail which did quite a lot of damage to fruit and house tops.

Beginning Wednesday afternoon a nutrition class will be taught at the church by Mrs. Long, County Home Demonstration Agent.

Next Sunday is regular church day at the Methodist church. We are looking forward to a large crowd and a special invitation is extended to our neighbor churches.

You are always welcome.
